

PUPILS TO OBSERVE FLAG DAY TUESDAY

Exercises in District Schools
Under G. A. R. Auspices to Uphold Patriotism.

DATE CHANGED BECAUSE
WEDNESDAY IS HOLIDAY

Programs at Central and Business
High Schools to Be Given in the Morning.

With patriotic orators selected as speakers, flag day exercises in the District schools will be held Tuesday morning. The exercises at the Department of the Interior, G. A. R. These exercises were to have been held Wednesday, but due to the fact that this date has been declared a holiday the G. A. R. officials have sent out notices of the change of date. These notices are signed by Andrew J. Hinton, department commander, G. A. R., S. Peckham, past state instructor, and Charles R. Douglas, assistant patriotic instructor. The exercises in Central and Business High Schools will be at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning. They have already been held in the other high schools. G. M. Schlitzberger, the commissioner of pensions, who left Washington last night to deliver a patriotic address before the department convention of the G. A. R. at Marion, Ohio, gave an address on the flag at the Eastern High School Thursday morning and at the Armstrong Manual Training School Friday morning. At these exercises an extract from a decision by Justice Harlan defining what the flag means was also read. The speakers at the Central High School will be Hosea R. Moulton and Dr. Thomas C. Fisher. At the Eastern High School, the speakers will be Rabbi Abram Simon, Stanton J. Peelle and Dr. George E. Davis.
